UNIVERSALIST CHURCH OF BRYANT POND TO OBSERVE 125th ANNIVERSARY

Members and friends of the Universalist Church of Bryant Pond will observe the 125th anniversary of the church on Sunday, Aug. 28 at 2 p. m., with Mrs. Chester C. Bean, chairman of services.

The first Universalist Society was organized in 1853 with 13 members. In 1851 land was donated by John Frye with plans being drawn by Ezra F. Beal of Norway. Lumber was given and foundation was granite stone slabs quarried from nearby granite ledges. The total cost of the building was $2,000 which was paid for by the sale of pews. On Feb. 2, 1853, dedication services were held and not only was this the first church in the town of Woodstock, it was the only Universalist Church, north of Norway, owned exclusively by its members. In the year 1843 a social library was formed and on July 10, 1858 the library was moved into the church. This was the first library in the town.

Church services were not held regularly in early years but in April, 1867, Rev. Ezekiel Coffin became the first resident minister and the society purchased a parsonage. In 1872 Rev. Taber settled as the pastor. Old records reveal that when weather permitted, summer services were held in "Deer's Grove." Rev. Chester Gore Miller served as the pastor and many famous concert artists, who were summer residents, furnished the music. There was a long period of inactivity.

DANCE DEMONSTRATION IN BRYANT POND SUNDAY

Lisa Sheiman and a group from Fiddler's Reach will be touring the state on Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 20 and 21, demonstrating Morris dancing. They are finishing their tour in Bryant Pond for a 5:00 o'clock demonstration on Sunday, Aug. 21.

Morris dancing is a type of folk dancing celebrating the fertility of the gardens. It is traditionally done during the harvest. The loud chants and active foot-stomping bring many earthworms to the area. The Morris Dance Demonstration will be done with the authentic colorful costumes of the original dance.

The Morris Dance demonstration will begin at 5:00 p. m. on the Bryant Pond ballfield. A potluck supper will follow. Bring a dish to pass and a place setting. At 7:30 a contra dance and folk dance will be led by the group from Fiddler's Reach. There will be live fiddle music and lessons for those new at this type of dancing. Fair weather will find the festivities on the Bryant Pond ball field. Rain will push the activities inside the Woodstock Elementary School Gym.

COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

The Board of Selectmen met Monday night, Aug. 15, and acted on a variety of items. Minutes of the July 18, 21, and 28 meetings were approved as were weekly payment warrants. A tax anticipation note in the amount of $50,000 was approved.

The Board awarded the 1977-78 fuel oil bid to Brooks Bros. and the 1977-78 gasoline bid to Ripley and Fletcher Co. Both were net low bids.

A liquor license application for Associated Hosts, Inc. d/b/a the Opera House was approved after a hearing. Principles in the business were present to explain the application and one interested citizen was present to express concern about possible parking problems and noise.

The Board signed a petition to the Maine Department of Transportation requesting that the Ferry Road Railroad Crossing be upgraded with signals and that the Smith and Cemetery crossings be discontinued. The State will hold a hearing prior to rendering a decision.

After discussion, the Board voted to work with Central Maine Power Company to reset some of the utility poles on Main Street into the curb to facilitate improved parking.

Special projects were reviewed and the Board reviewed the July financial statement. The Board authorized the Manager to advertise for sale a used snow plow now in the curbing to the Highway Department.

A meeting was scheduled for next Monday night to review qualifications of engineering firms interested in undertaking upgrade work on the sewer system.

The Board, after discussion and an executive session, voted not to allow any further building at the airport until after the Master Plan Study is complete. It was also voted that the old town hangar be demolished due to its condition and potential liability for the town. The manager was also directed to contact the FAA regarding flight operations at the airport.

"MAINE 2000" SLIDE SHOW AT ANDOVER AUGUST 23

"Maine 2000," a slide show prepared by the Commission on Maine's Future to provoke discussion of some of the critical choices Maine must make in the next 25 years, will be shown in Andover on Tuesday, Aug. 23, Commission Chairman Halsey Smith has announced.

The show, which was produced by a professional film-maker and narrated by actor Gary Merrill, will be screened at Town Hall at 7:30 p. m. The public is invited.

The Andover presentation is one of over 100 screenings of "Maine 2000" taking place this summer. The Commission on Maine's Future is distributing the film and an accompanying questionnaire in order to determine public reactions to the various policy alternatives that it has identified over the course of the past two years.

"So far, reaction to the show has been extremely enthusiastic," Smith reported. The "people of Maine obviously care enormously about the future of the state, and they seem to appreciate both the show itself and the opportunity to bring their thoughts into the process of planning for the Maine of tomorrow."

Smith said that public response to the alternatives identified in the Commission questionnaire could have a major influence on the group's final recommendations to the Governor and Legislature, which are due November 1.

"I sincerely hope the people of Andover will turn out and see 'Maine 2000,' and then tell us something about where they think the state ought to be going," Smith said. "After all, it's their future that we're talking about."

— Mrs. Colista Morgan, Corres. —

Mist lifted slowly from the pond this morning, clinging among the forest trees. Just off shore six ducks drifted in the vapor, then paddled away to the center of the pond. Two blue herons stood motionless in the water-weeds beyond the mail box. We were having breakfast; they were waiting for theirs. At each slow step one bird lowered its head. It waited, listened, then the sharp bill and long neck shot forward and downward, the wiry body swayed forward on the reed-like legs and the unfortunate prey was in the serrated bill. We saw the flash and a gulp or two; one heron had his breakfast. Then both of them flew heavily up the pond to resume another period of waiting.

Some time later the sun came over the hill, touching everything with a warm and innocent light. It turned to a beautiful day. So I packed my lunch to join my husband on the hill top where he was to finish his last field of hay.

Going up the Bulldozer Road, the stretch was filled from end to end, with flower-laden jewelweeds. This, too, is a province of humming birds and humming bees. They darted about with no concern what ever as I walked through. Once two ruby-throats came streaking toward me. They zoomed, uttering a sharp squeak as they went by. It was the same sound that I hear every morning by my bedroom window as they visit the pink jewel weeds and the bee balm. One swept back and forth over the area making grating sounds; a kind of DEE-DEET! It was repeated many times. It landed and walked still, then took off and called again. A few steps beyond one was perched on a twig. It then darted down to feed among the yellow blossoms, whirled into the air and was gone.

I arrived at the top of the hill where it was clear, cool, and scenic. The land was dry for all summer long the rain has seemed to tremble on the brink of afternoon clouds without finding enough strength to spill over.

We ate beneath a bowl of blue;

— Carolyn M. Colby, Corres. —

Bob and Mona Lowe arrived home Sunday from a week long trip to parts of the Maritime Provinces. They went to Nova Scotia, Oak Island, New Brunswick, Cape Breton and Prince Edward Island.

Ralph Elliot, South Portland, called on Alden and Irene Wilson one day last week.

Three vicious coydogs came in amongst the woodmen where Terry Wilson works in Andover on Wednesday of last week. Two of the men climbed trees, Terry and another man got into a pickup and were able to send the animals packing after awhile.

on the rocks of the stone wall, dug and stoned so many years ago, when some time, before us, a farm house stood here.

After lunch Clyde returned to work and I went to the woods. Arrows of sunlight shot through the trees and the fragrance of the warming needles was all around. I stopped to look about. No brook today, just a rocky bed where it so often bubbled when I sought it out.

Chickadee! There he was stretched flat on a pine limb in a patch of sunlight, warm on his restless back. He jerked to attention and, whisked to the end of the limb, and leaped to the next tree. Here he dashed to another limb, perched, and cleaned sticky pitch from his leg. While he was in the business, he worked carefully over the plume of his tail. He cleaned it and fluffed it until he thought it was perfect. Then waving it, he whirled away, every now and then stopping to sit on his haunches to listen and to sniff.

I think per ounce and per inch, there is no small animal that can develop more interest than a red squirrel. He can, in a few minutes, sneeze, bark, screech, cough and spit until you'd think he'd explode.

Well, he was finally off on the high dark road of the branches. I was off down the hill to pick cucumbers and beans when I reached the farm. I had left Chatterbox to manage the forest.

Mrs. Leonas Holt left on Thursday to visit her sons and families over the week end. Robert in Windsor, and David in Princeton. Doris Hayes and I joined other teachers for dinner on Thursday at Beryl Bonney's camp.

Several from here attended Old Home Days at West Paris on Saturday. Ruth Hastings and I were at the Albany Church for supper on Saturday and then visited Edith Labbe for a short time.

Clyde and I called on Mr. and Mrs. Albert Carey, Hall Pond Road on Sunday.

Wallace Hayes, Hyde Park, N. Y. is visiting his grandparents, at the Hayes Homestead. Duane Hayes and children, West Paris, were callers there on Saturday.

Ann Holt, Bethel, is staying at the Holt farm while her mother is away.

Northwest Bethel

— Clarice Gibson, Corres. —

Another week of summer has slipped by. We did have quite a lot of rain and am in hopes that it helped some of the wells, as I have heard of more than one well that had gone dry. It was, however, too late for a lot of the crops. People have told me that the blueberry and corn crops were way down. Don't know if the weather is to blame, but have not heard of anyone who has had good luck with their peppers this year.

The week end of the 6th, Miss Nita and Shanie Kimball spent with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Benson. Their mother, Mrs. Davis Kimball, came up and had Sunday dinner with her parents before taking Nita and Shanie home.

Mrs. Sylvia Benson visited her mother, Mrs. Alice Foss and sister, Mrs. Judy Small at Hebron Wednesday. Another sister, Mrs. Shirley Bonney and niece, Ms. Connie Coffin, also were there that day.

Sylvia Benson also spent a day with Joan Coolidge, who is improving and at home in her trailer.

Hampton (Two) Ballard III, who is studying for a physician's assistant at Phillips College in West Virginia, is visiting with his mother, Mrs. Bruce Ballard. After four years study he will receive a Bachelor of Science Degree. He will then have to go into a hospital for rotation another year. This is called rotation instead of intern as he will have to learn to work with doctors in all fields.

Mrs. Edith Smith, Mrs. Joyce Swan Bailey, Mrs. Ruth Garber McKenna, Mrs. Barbara Bartlett Gallant, Mrs. Frances Clark, Mrs. Colleen Boyd, Mrs. Neda Bartlett, and Mrs. Clare Plawlock had a get-together Thursday at Richard Stevens camp at Songo with a potluck supper. These girls before marriage used to run around together.

Mrs. Mildred Chapman is still in the hospital; but, we are glad to report that Macky Chapman is back at her grandmother's camp at Bryant Pond.

Miss Meg Bonwitt, daughter of Ms. Sally Clay, has gone back to Massachusetts for the winter.

Walter Clark took Ricky Angevine, Don Feeney, John Feeney, and Rick James to Kittery Trading Post, Saturday.

Kristy Angevine spent some time at her great-grandmother's farm, Mrs. Abbott, at Rumford Point. Besides her great-grandmother, her aunt and uncle and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bando, are there.

Mr. and Mrs. John MacDougall, James and Lea, spent a week at Mooselookmeguntic camping. They reported that only one day was the lake calm enough to go boating on and had to keep a fire half the time as it was so cold.

Mrs. Katrina Laban left Sunday to visit John Laban's brother George and family, in Taunton, Mass. Christopher and Matthew Laban have gone to visit their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Casey for a week in Reading, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. John Laban and Amy, went to Freeport to pick up their Border Collie they had bought.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Tyler and son, Richard, from Eliot, visited her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Saunders, over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ayward were evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gibson. Gerry Shimamura and Jody also came down. When everyone left we went onto the porch and had apparently had another guest, Mr. Skunk.

Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gibson, Jr., and Ira, had as supper guests, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Tucker III and Ben IV, also Ben's brother Robert Tucker.

Frank was good enough to take Ira and me out for Sunday dinner at the new Inn in North Waterford. I wanted to go as this is where we lived when the boys were little. It was fun to see what was our living room now a dining room and our bedroom was a lounge where you could go in and sit. I am sorry to say it was not up to my expectations.

We rode to Fryeburg, back to Harrison, over to Crockett Ridge in Norway, where we visited Frank's cousin and family, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Briggs and Bill, another cousin, Ira Briggs, also came in. We finished off the day by having supper at my folks, Mr. and Mrs. George Allen, and came home in heavy rain and fog.

Charles (Chuckie) Mason was taken to the Rumford hospital where he is recovering from surgery.

Last week Gerry and Jody Shimamura with Mrs. Joan Thurston and four children went to Upton blueberrying. Gerry said that even the youngest Thurston (about four) got between two and three quarts of berries.

Waterford Fair this week. I understand they changed to try to get better weather but I will at ways think of it as the last Friday and Saturday of September.

VAIL FAMILY REUNION

The descendants of David and Alice Shields Vail held their annual family reunion at the Bear River Grange Hall on Sunday, Aug. 7, in Newry with approximately 100 members and guests in attendance.

In addition to good fellowship and a most delicious buffet dinner prepared by the members, the following articles were made and donated to the reunion as prizes for those attending: Two handmade patchwork quilts by Thomas "Ritz" Vail of St. Petersburg, Fla., the eldest member present; a crocheted afghan by Addie Colby; a handmade doll and cap and mittens by Elaine "Lady" Dutil; and a hanging planter by Janice Black.

These prizes were awarded to Brenda Berardinelli, Richard Blake, Francis Vail, Jr., and Marion Parsons. There was also a cash door prize which was given to Brenda Jarvis.

The highlight of the day was a unique patchwork quilt designed and made by Thomas "Ritz" Vail and Andrew Clarke of St. Petersburg, Fla. It was made in design in that 16 of the squares contained the initials of David and Alice Vail, together with the initials of their seven children and spouses. Many of those seeing this news item will remember these children as Walter and Ida Vail; Amy and Frank Bennett; Frank and Mary Vail; Lee and Eva Vail; Net and Bill Spinney; John and Ethel Vail; and Thomas "Ritz" and Lillian Vail. This lovely creation was donated to the reunion members who, in turn, presented it to the appreciative Mr. and Mrs. Merle Beausoleil in recognition of their dedication and service to the Vail Reunion.

Officers elected for the coming year were Francis H. Vail, Sr., president; William Vail, Sr., Vice President; Merle Beausoleil, Secretary-Treasurer.

The meeting was closed with a prayer by Richard Blake.

July 21, 1958 the work actually started after the necessary money had been donated and earned for the project.

A new Hammond organ and memorial chimes as well as a new heating system, new lights and many new improvements have all been done since that date. Much work has been donated by persons who dedicated themselves for the love of this church. Summer and Christmas sales, suppers, auctions, luncheons all helped to earn the necessary pennies not previously donated by persons.

Many, many changes have taken place in the town of Woodstock during those long years, but outwardly the church remains the same beautiful structure as envisioned by those original 13 members in 1843 and still possessing the quiet solitude of a by-gone era, away from the roar of traffic, with a background of Lake Christopher and Mt. Christopher, a solid silhouette against the sky.

It is only fitting then that the few members and friends of the church joining since 1948 deemed it right to reopen and observe the 125th anniversary.

HEAD START NEEDS YOUR HELP

For our community to receive funds for Head Start and Day Care programs, we need the support of the entire community.
In providing these programs, Oxford Community Services must rely on donations of time and money from people in the community. If there is no local support, we cannot receive State or Federal funds.

Approximately, for every one dollar donated, either in cash or volunteer service (eg. as classroom aids or for transportation etc.), an additional three dollars will be supplied by the State or Federal governments.

So we are desperately seeking your help. While we need and can use any donation you can spare (money, toys, books, or other classroom materials, etc.), we are also in need of your time. Can you spare an hour or two a day to lend a hand at your local center? How about an hour or two a week? Can you volunteer to check-up on returned home children to the clinic for check-ups and vaccinations, or to and from school? Please, if you wish to help in any way that you can, contact: Saundry Cohen, Head Teacher, W. Bethel Head Start Center, Tel. 836-3700.

NEW AFDC GRANT LEVELS IN EFFECT SEPT. 1

New grant levels for Aid to Families with Dependent Children, which became law as a result of action by the 108th Maine legislature, will increase the percentage of need payment from 85% to 90% of 1969 Standard of Need, effective Sept. 1, according to Paul A. LeVeque, deputy director, Bureau of Social Welfare.

This could mean, for example, that a family of five (including one adult) now getting $357 a month, that increased to $378 per month.

Medically needy families will also notice an increase in Protected Income Levels which are directly reflective of the increased AFDC payment standards. For instance, the protected income level for a family of five is now $483; on Sept. 1 it will increase to $508.

The Republican Party of Maine has adopted a state-wide budget and established county and town quotas. The state quota is $130,000 and Oxford County's share is $10,000. The money is raised to help state, county and national candidates, to maintain headquarters in Augusta, for maintaining a staff of four people, for telephone service, and to take care of problems of Maine citizens regardless of their political affiliations. The Oxford County GOP Committee will share in a percentage of the funds collected in our county.

Those interested and wishing to contribute can mail contributions to N. K. Ferguson, Box 38, Hanover, Me., 04237. Please make checks payable to Oxford County Republican Finance Fund. Your town will get credit for any and all donations received by mail.

Under the provisions of the policy
the Hot Lunch Supervisor will review applications and determine eligibility. If a parent is dissatisfied with the ruling of the official,

SWAIN - ROTH

The Andover Congregational Church was the setting for a family wedding of Katherine Andrea Roth, Bethel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Roth, Creve Coeur, Mo., to Robert John Swain, Bethel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Swain, East Andover.

Rev. David Wuori, pastor of the church, performed the double ring ceremony Saturday morning, Aug. 6. The church was decorated with floral arrangements. Mrs. Charles Burnham, church organist and pianist, provided musical selections as a prelude to the ceremony. For the processional, Kim Y. Swain, Jericho, Vt., sister-in-law of the groom, sang "The Wedding Song."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a keyhole necked gown of polyester and cotton trimmed with chintilly lace on the bodice and sleeves. The skirt ended in a flounce. A fingertip veil was attached to a picture book hat covered with scalloped lace and seed pearls. She carried a colonial lace trimmed bouquet of pink roses, white carnations and baby's breath.

Catherine Faust, Auburn, friend of the bride, acted as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Diane R. Case, Drake, Colo.; Karen Roth, Creve Coeur, Mo.; sisters of the bride, and Cynthia Kennedy, Bethel, friend of the bride. The maid of honor and the bridesmaids were gowned in mint green empire waist dresses with capped sleeves. The maid of honor carried a colonial bouquet of pink carnations and yellow daisies while the bridesmaids carried colonial bouquets of pink roses, yellow carnations and daisies. Each wore picture hats trimmed with pink and white ribbons.

Ross B. Swain, East Andover, served his brother as best man. Ushering duties were performed by the bride's brother, William C. Roth, Creve Coeur, Mo.; Rodney L. Swain, Jericho, Vt., brother of the groom, and Arthur Hammond, Bethel, friend of the bride couple.

BETHEL SENIOR CITIZENS MET AT SONGO POND AUG. 10

The Bethel Senior Citizens met at the Bethel Inn Cottage at Songo Pond on Wednesday, Aug. 10. Eighty-two were seated for the buffet lunch put on by the Chef's Table of Norway. It was a very good meal served outdoor under the trees. Luck was with the group again as rain was expected at any moment.

The meeting was opened by Pres. Muriel Faudi with the Lord's prayer repeated in unison. Secretary's report was read and approved, also the treasurer's report. It was reported that the food booth made $118.44 at the Mollycoddett Day Carnival.

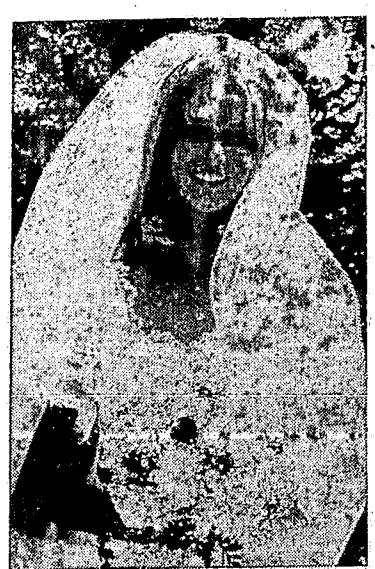

Those celebrating August birthdays were Lucia Verrill and Esther Pierce. The birthday cake was furnished by Cora Bennett of Bethel. Cora's Valentine gave the blessing. One highlight of the day was a graduation program, Gould's Academy, 1907. The only member living from this class is Fitz Vail and he was at the meeting.

Lillian Bartlett presented him the program book. The other highlight was the speaker of the day, Don Fadden and he spoke on affairs of the Senior Citizen needs which included the necessity of a permanent meeting place. Mr. Fadden is president of the Senior Citizens of Eastern Maine. He was an excellent speaker. The money which is available to Senior Citizens is known as Title S, and he urged all to write to the Congressmen about a difficult bill, including the denaturists bill which is before the Congress. Title S money is from the Federal Government.

Mrs. Valette, a retired teacher, spoke on her days at Higgins Classical Institute. She also was graduated there in the year 1907. Mrs. Lowell resigned as keeper of the guest book and agreed to take it over. Maud Danforth and Billie Croteau. Everyone was sorry to hear of the death of Jim Rowe's wife.

There were guests from Mechanic Falls, Portland and Florida. It well could be said that the guests had been sent to Eva Herrick, Jorgen Olson, Rena Abbott and Dot Abbott; sympathy cards to Gwendolyn Stearns, Elsie Davis and Murray Thurston family. Anniversary card to Dora and Norwood Ford; birthday card to Helen Berry. Thank you cards were received from Danielle Coulombe and Rena Abbott.

Meeting place and program for September will be announced at a later date. The birthday cake will be furnished by the Bryant Pond Ladies.

Mrs. Gary L. Langley

LANGLEY - GODDARD

Miss Cynthia Joy Goddard of Patuxent River, Md., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Goddard of Hanover, became the bride of Gary Lloyd Langley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Langley of Dalton, Ga., on July 23.

The double ring ceremony took place at the Rumford Point Congregational Church with the Rev. Carl Kingsbury officiating. Baskets of painted daisies and baby's breath decorated the altar.

The bride given in marriage by her father and mother wore a gown of white organza with scalloped chintilly lace on the fitted bodice and lace inserts on the skirt which extended into a train. Her finger-tip bouffant veil was trimmed with lace appliques attached to a matching Juliet headpiece, and she carried a bouquet of red sweetheart roses with white poms and baby's breath.

Mrs. David Luxton, sister of the bride, acted as matron of honor, wearing a light green Quiana gown with off-white lace cape sleeves and carried carnations and baby's breath with matching streamers.

Serving as best man was Kim Smith of Patuxent River, Md., with David Luxton of West Bethel as usher.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the K. of P. Hall in Hanover.

The bride is a graduate of Rumford High School; her husband is a graduate of Whitfield High School, Walton, Ga. They both are serving with the United States Navy and will reside at St. George's Island, Md.

Let House Cut Tax Bills

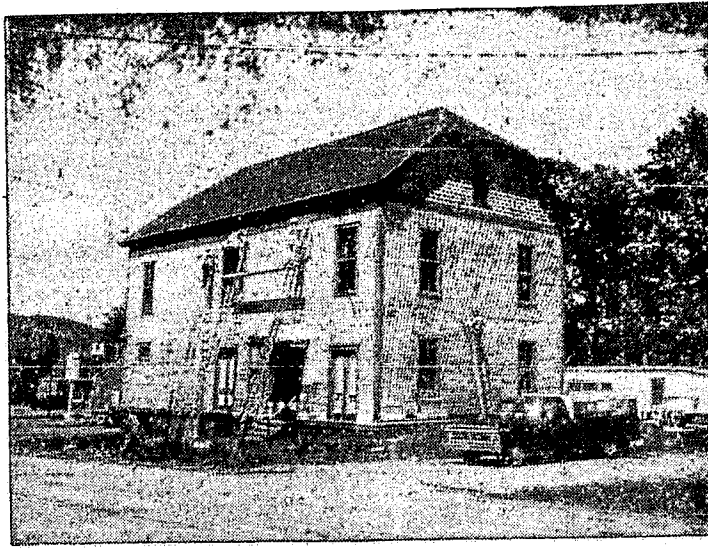

Your home should be, besides your nest of dreams, an income tax saver. From the moment you take title to the day you turn over the key to the next inhabitants, you are endowed with opportunities to minimize your tax bill.

While you own the home, your two major annual deductions are property taxes and the interest on the mortgage. These can be considerable deductions.

Keep in mind that it doesn't matter whether you pay property taxes directly or through an escrow account held by the bank. In either case, you deduct the sum actually paid to the local taxing authority. Also, using part of your home for business purposes constitutes a deduction for that portion of the home expenses used for the business. It is based on the square footage of space used for business. However, it must be used exclusively for business.

... If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at EARLY REAL ESTATE, 60 Main St., Bethel. Phone: 824-2122, 824-2579. We're here to help!
